

BEFORE, DURING AND AFTER PHOTOSHOOT QUESTIONS

The process of learning consists of three main elements. Before, During and After the photoshoot.
While working on this photoshoot, ask yourself and try to answer the following questions.

Date of photoshoot

TOPIC FOCUS

Before you take the photoshoot

Q1. What is the aim/concept of the photoshoot?

Q2. Why are you interested in photographing this subject matter?

Q3. What do you want to get from this photoshoot?

Q4. What Health and Safety measures do you need to consider?

Q5. What equipment do you need to prepare?

Q6. Which Core Skills will you focus on and why?

During your work

Q7. How have you had to adapt your ideas and techniques?

Q8. What has surprised you about the photoshoot?

Q9. What has been successful and what has not worked out during this photoshoot?

After you finished working

Q10. Has the photoshoot met your initial aims. How and why?

Q11. What are you going to do differently in terms of techniques and ideas for the next photoshoot?

BEFORE, DURING AND AFTER LEARNING LOG - More challenging questions

The process of learning consists of three main elements.
While working on this unit of work, ask yourself and try to answer the following questions.

Date of photoshoot

TOPIC FOCUS

Before you started working

Q1. What in my prior knowledge will help me with this particular task?

Q2. Why do I need to know this material?

Q3. What should I do first?

Q4. How much time do I have to complete the task?

Q5. What help do I need to get started?

During your work

Q1. Am I on the right track?

Q2. How should I proceed?

Q3. What information is important to remember?

Q4. What do I need to do if I do not understand ?

After you finished working

Q1. How well did I do?

Q2. What have I learnt from this activity?

Q3. What could I have done differently?

Q4. Do I need to back through the task to fill in any blanks in my understanding?

Q5. What can I take from this task and apply to my future activities?